

Partnership Covenant

Following your decision to Partner with TICC N please stand and pray the following:

On this day, having understood and aligned myself with the work of The International Christian Church Network (TICC N), I now commit myself firstly to God, and then to the other Partners within this Network. That in this fellowship, my support will further the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the great cause of the Kingdom of God will advance. I yield to the will of God for my life now and I ask you Lord, to help me be who You have called me to be, and to do what You have called me to do. Therefore, I sign this Partnership Covenant as an act of my commitment to God through The International Christian Church Network.
